HICO MAN GOES DOWN IN SWIRLING BOSQUE

HICO, May 17—Volunteers were continuing to comb the flooded banks of the Bosque River near here tonight in an attempt to find E. C. Allison Jr., who plunged into the swollen stream early today when a bridge collapsed under a truck he was driving.

Mr. Allison, president of the Hico School Board and brother to Mrs. Dellis Seago of Waco, was hauling 19 head of cattle toward Fort Worth at 6:40 a. m. when the 50-foot bridge gave way.

Horace Ross, who was driving an automobile behind Allison's semi-trailer truck said the victim appeared on the surface of water only one time after the truck hit the water.

"He clutched at a piece of wood on the water then went under and didn't come back up," Ross said.

The search today was confined to the banks because the water was moving too swiftly for boats to be maneuvered and permit the use of grappling hooks.

Spectators, mostly Hico residents, held little hope that Allison would be found alive.

The Hico people had stationed themselves down the river during the day and watched closely for some sign of a human body in the muddy waters.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hightower and daughter Kathleen of Houston visited Mrs. G. T. Hightower over the week end.

ADEQUATE BUDGET IS LACKING FOR PLANS

The Chamber of Commerce has announced its program for the year in a mimeographed brochure just mailed to committee Chairmen and members.

The plan covers a wide field of proposed services to the community, also promoting a number of needed things.

Fundamentally the program is handicapped to start with because there is no budget beyond the expenses of administrative detail.

The report calls for an adequate budget. It also calls for in the main for concentration on agriculture, giving special mention to poultry and dairying.

Large sections of the county are peculiarly adapted to cotton growing but the report makes no mention of that commodity. In the main cotton growing is so well established that few think of the encouragement it needs in a lagging world situation. Cotton is our heritage.

The report is issued after a season of burgeooning by committee members and follows pretty much the accepted organization lines with some significant departures. The growing poultry industry, epitomized by the broiler, has caught the fancy of civic prodigies.

Highways and rural roads are needed. The county is at present stymied on right of way problems but may work out of the situation soon.

Since Cameron is in the center of the Magic Soil Belt it goes without saying the world should know more about these lands, rainfall, climate and other factors that make this one of the greatest areas in the world.

If the Chamber could find a solution to its current problem, which is finance, it might, under concentration upon a program, accomplish a great deal in a substantial way. Little is to be gained by simply indorsing something. It's the doing of it that builds the black side of the ledger.

On the whole the Chamber is to be congratulated. A very definite charge against the business men calls for adequate financing. Make up your minds to put something back into the community instead of milking it dry every year. We've tried everything else, why not investment in our own civic future. Give until it hurts and then demand and get action.

SAFETY AWARD MADE TO CITY OF CAMERON

Cameron has received a plaque from the National Safety Council because it did not have a traffic fatality in 1948.

Mayor Roy Griffith was exhibiting the award this week and was justly proud that his city had made this fine record.

The city of Cameron in earning this award made the National Traffic Safety Contest Honor Roll for 1948.

The Green Cross is the symbol for safety. A portion of the inscription reads: "In recognition of its accomplishments in completing the year without a fatal motor vehicle traffic accident within the municipal limits."

Cameron has been singularly free from traffic accidents through recent years despite the overcrowded conditions of the streets and many driving hazards, mainly because there are no signal lights to govern traffic.

All Cameron will join with Mayor Griffith in proper appreciation for this award.

Mrs. Louis Dominik of Bryan is spending this week visiting her mother, Mrs. F. R. Porter and other relatives. Mrs. Dominik is the former Marie Butler.

Grasshopper Control Insecticides May Be Harmful Says A&M

COLLEGE STATION, May 12—Insecticides now being recommended for grasshopper control may be harmful to livestock and humans in concentrated amounts.

According to H. G. Johnston, Extension Entomologist at A&M College animals being finished for slaughter should not be fed forage treated with toxaphene or chlordane.

At dosages recommended there is no immediate danger to the animals being fed or pastured. However, these insecticides may accumulate in the fatty tissues of the animals and are given off in milk and butterfat.

Animals fed for long periods on treated forage may accumulate enough of these chemicals to make meat and dairy products unfit for human food.

To prevent poisoning bees these insecticides should not be applied to legumes when in bloom. Bees are essential to pollination and should be protected when possible. If treating legumes for grasshopper control protect bees as much as possible by using spray. It is less harmful to bees than are dusts.

DETROIT, May 18—The striking CIO, United Auto Workers Union submitted a secret proposal for settling its crippling nine-day strike against the Ford Motor Co. today, as the Federal Government said it was ready to move into the dispute.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther said after a three-hour negotiating session that the company has agreed to give its answer to the "far more specific and detailed" peace plan tomorrow afternoon.

The surprise proposal came as Cyrus S. Ching, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, said at Washington he would intervene "unless" significant progress is reported . . . within a reasonable period."

Friends will regret to learn Mrs. Matt Baggerly is among the patients in Newton Memorial Hospital for treatment.

John McFarland of Austin spent a few days in Cameron the past week visiting old friends and relatives.

MISTER, WHICH WAY TO EASY STREET?

WELL, THERE ARE SOME short cuts, but they pass through bad neighborhoods, and it's awfully easy to get lost.

But there's one route that's good and straight, and leads right where you want to go . . . Systematic Saving.

Here's one of the best ways to get on it . . .

Your bank will sell you U. S. Savings Bonds, either over the counter or through the simple, automatic Bond-A-Month Plan.

If you choose the Bond-A-Month Plan it will bring you a bond every month, charging the cost to your checking account. You can pile up bonds just as fast as you like.

You'll be surprised how easy it is—and you'll be amazed how soon you'll find yourself going along in the right direction.

Then, in just ten years, when your bonds pay you back four dollars for every three, you'll know that Easy Street isn't very far away. You can't miss it.

What's that? Oh . . . you're welcome.

Jeanette McDonald Essays Dramatic Role In "Sun Comes Up."

Jeanette MacDonald, whose previous screen work has been confined to romantic singing roles, is given opportunity not only to sing but to essay in her newest M-G-M offering, on view at the Cameron Theatre Thursday. It is "The Sun Comes Up," a poignant and moving drama based on a novel by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings whose "The Yearling" provided the screen with one of its finest films.

In the new story, beautifully photographed in Technicolor in the Santa Cruz mountains of California, Miss MacDonald is seen as Helen Winter, a concert singer embittered by a double tragedy. She has lost her husband in the war and now she loses her young son when he is killed in an automobile accident. Renouncing her singing career, Helen seeks solitude in a mountain retreat, reluctantly taking with her the collie dog (Lassie) who had innocently been the cause of her son's death. Embittered against all children, Helen rebuffs the friendly overtures of young Jerry (Claude Jarman, Jr.), a boy from a nearby orphanage who reports daily to do her chores. It is only after Jerry is narrowly saved from death by the courageous collie when the orphanage is set on fire (a spectacularly realistic sequence) that Helen realizes what the boy means to her.

The performances in this tender story are of a high order. Miss MacDonald achieves the peak of her career in the role of the woman whose faith in life is renewed in the love of a youngster. Nor does she fail in the talent which has made her Hollywood's top singing star. Her singing of such selections as "Songs My Mother Taught Me," "If You Were Mine," "Tes Yeux," the comic folk ballad "Cousin Ebenezer," and "Un Bel Di Vedremo" ("One Fine Day") from the opera, "Madame Butterfly," are stirring musical highlights.

Young Claude Jarman, in the part of the wistful orphan, fulfills all the expectations he aroused after his Academy Award-winning role in "The Yearling," and his scenes with the redoubtable Lassie cannot fail to move youngsters and adults alike. Another fine performer in the cast is Lloyd Nolan, usually seen in two-gun characterizations, but this time playing an attractive novelist who is instrumental in bringing the singer and her young charge together. The featured players are rounded out by the veteran Lewis Stone, in the role of Miss MacDonald's concert manager, and Percy Kilbride as an amusingly outspoken country storekeeper.

The distinguished acting portrayals, discerning direction of Richard Thorpe and fine production values given the picture by Robert Sisk all add up to telling screen entertainment. You can chalk up "The Sun Comes Up" as one of the year's best.

CAMERON COUPLE ARE HURT IN AUTO CRASH

BELTON, May 8 — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kelley of Cameron received painful burns and other injuries in a freak accident on the Belton-Killeen highway just east of Nolanville shortly before 2 p. m. Sunday.

Their car, driven by Mr. Kelley, apparently caught fire while in motion, and in trying to put out the fire, he lost control of the car. It rammed into a earth embankment.

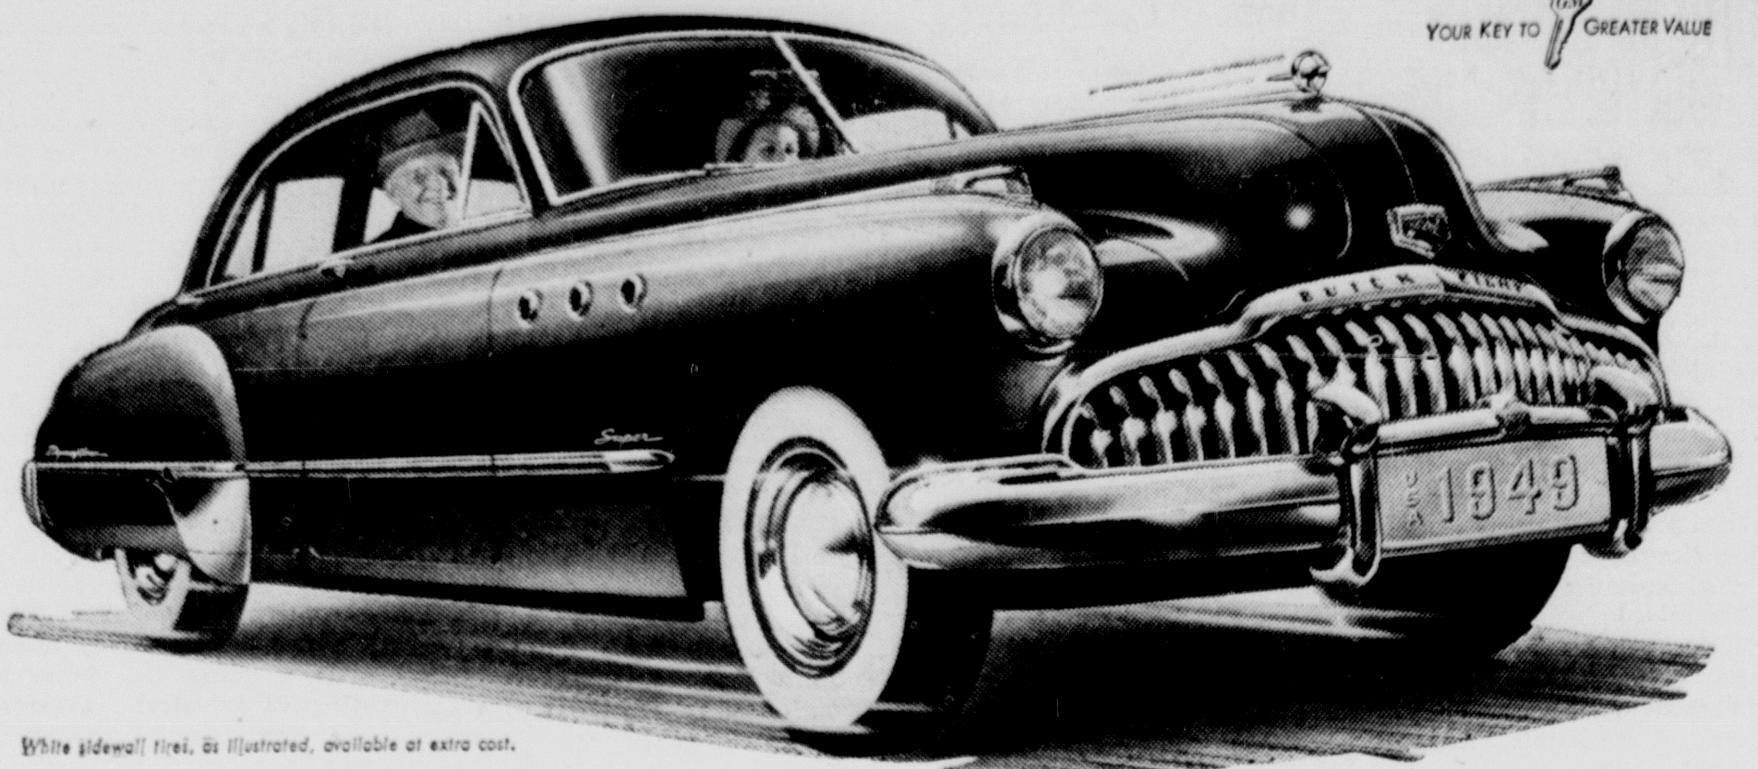

The couple was brought to Sewell hospital here. Mrs. Kelley had severe burns on both legs and feet, and face lacerations, while Mr. Kelley had a broken nose, face lacerations and a badly burned hand. He is employed by a Cameron motor company, formerly worked at Killeen. The car was badly damaged and burned inside.

The accident was the second for the Killeen area in less than 24 hours. Mrs. John McBride of Bufala, Okla., wife of a Camp Hood soldier, was killed Saturday night when their car overturned on a road near Camp Hood. Mr. McBride, driving, was not seriously hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Langford of Texas City and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oglesby of Texas City spent the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dreyer.

Judge W. A. Morrison made a business trip to Austin one day this week.

SLAYER OF FAMILY IS NOW FACING THE CHAIR

WHARTON, May 11—Sheriff T. E. (Buckshot) Lane carried the news today to Dr. Lloyd I. Ross that he would have to go to the electric chair.

The doctor, who murdered four persons, sat silent. His sister, Miss Rena Ross, sat by his side, sobbing as she lost her struggle with her emotions.

"The Doc didn't say a thing. He just looked at me like—well, I just can't describe how he looked at me," said Lane.

The Court of Criminal Appeals this morning denied appeals for a rehearing and confirmed the verdict of a LaGrange jury which ordered the death sentence for Ross.

In May 1947, he shot to death four members of one family on a lonely country road near New Braunfels—Mr. and Mrs. Willard York, their 9-year-old son John, and York's mother, Mary, 67.

The wild shooting spree, the defense said, was the result of insanity induced by Ross' heavy financial losses in dealing with York, an investment broker.

But the jury that fall listened to little Ann York, 13, and the only member of her family to escape alive, and decreed death for the Harvard-educated doctor.

Miss Ross, her brother's most frequent visitor, arrived from Austin about 3 o'clock this afternoon, prepared to face the doctor and tell him what had happened in the Appeals Court a few hours earlier.

But she didn't tell him. Lane brought Ross out of the tank-type cell he shares with 10 other prisoners on the second floor of the gray brick jail building and followed him into a conference room where the sister was waiting. They all sat down, and Miss Ross' composure shattered.

"Brother, I'm going to have to let Sheriff Lane tell you the verdict," she sobbed.

The doctor looked at the sheriff. "The court has upheld the verdict," the sheriff began. "Doc, you'll have to go to the chair." He just sat there.

"He didn't say anything, but he knew what I told him. He just sat there, for a few minutes—then he launched into a tirade against the jail. He said the trustees were trying to poison him, and that he was afraid to drink coffee any more.

"I don't think he cares about much of anything though."

Ross has been in the Wharton jail since Jan. 8, 1949. Soon, he will be moved back to the jail at LaGrange, in Fayette County where he was convicted, and hear the formal sentence, including the execution date.

After that, he will be transferred to the Huntsville State prison, and only clemency from Governor Beauford H. Jester can save him.

Coleman Lansford of Richmond, Virginia was here to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Annie Mae Lansford Kelley Thursday.

According to the Press version of the accident a number of cars were parked along the street near the Southern Pacific Depot awaiting the arrival of the train. The Rowland car, proceeding about 30 miles an hour passed through the line of parked cars and the occupants did not observe the approaching train.

FLOOD WATERS LEAVE FT. WORTH STRICKEN

FORT WORTH, May 17 — Floodwaters from a 12-inch cloudburst left 13,200 persons homeless, four known drowned, and a dozen missing today.

The figure on homeless came from a Red Cross survey. The flood, latest result of a series of storms which ravaged parts of the Texas Panhandle and North Texas, cut off the city's water supply.

Two 500-gallon-an-hour water purification units were being rushed here from the Army's Camp Hood. The State Health Department said it was sending 10,000 units of typhoid vaccine.

The high waters, rolling down the Trinity River, threatened the lowlands of Dallas, 30 miles to the east.

Meanwhile, another tornado lashed the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandles last night, killing a farmer in Oklahoma and injuring three persons at Stratford, Texas.

Fourteen persons were treated in Fort Worth hospitals today for shock and exposure.

Four major levees broke here as muddy, debris-filled water rose rapidly in this city of 340,000 people, Texas' third largest. The crest came about 10 a. m. and for several hours water dropped at about a foot an hour.

Five Tornadoes Sweep The Texas Panhandle

A ranch house was destroyed and utility lines north of Panhandle damaged as five tornadoes did a malicious dance in the upper plains of West Texas Friday.

Heavy rains—some accompanied by hail struck many points in same section.

They came near the end of a day which had seen scattered, heavy rains virtually flood some parts of the south plains.

Late Friday water was reported still standing in a few homes in Muleshoe—about 68 miles northwest of Lubbock in Bailey county. The town was hit by a 3.66 inch downpour early Friday.

Muleshoe City Secretary R. J. Klump measured the fall. It left lakes standing in low parts of the town and covered the floors of some houses to a depth of two feet.

Heavy rain and a brief hail storm lashed Pampa late Friday; heavy rain and hail—hard on the wheat crop—accompanied the twister which destroyed the ranch house, the six room home of Earl Williams on the Purvins ranch 25 miles northeast of Amarillo.

Residents of Panhandle saw the twister, which hit utility lines near there, coming. They headed out of town. Mrs. C. F. Hood said there was no property damage in the town. There was hail and rain at Panhandle.

The Amarillo Globe News said the other three tornadoes skipped about in the ranch and wheat country and broke up without any reported damage. No injuries were reported from any of the five.

FARMERS HERE GET PRICES ON CROPS

The United States Department of Agriculture has just announced support prices on grain sorghum and oats, according to Alva E. Sanders, Administrative Officer for the Milam County ACA.

The grain sorghum support prices is $2.12 per hundred pounds and 75c per bushel on oats.

Since Milam county produces a large annual tonnage of grain sorghum this will be good news. Mr. Sanders said that the support price in its self is a good return to farmers. There is always a possibility of getting more than the support price, but in no case will the producer get less than the support price as long as the government guarantees the prices.

Milam County is not an oat producing section, although considerable acreage is devoted to the grain.

The ACA is currently doing one of the most important jobs in the history of the department. Listing crop lands as to number of acres and types and also acreages devoted to the major crops.

In the very near future it will be possible to answer every question regarding crop acreages, values and types and this will be invaluable to both the government and to the farmers and business generally.

Texans Warned Of Increase In Polio

AUSTIN, May 12—Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, today warned Texans of an increase in polio.

Eighteen new cases have been reported to the Health department since last Friday, seven of them in Bexar county. Guadalupe county had three new cases and Cameron two. Ector, Ellis, Grimes, McLennan, Nueces, and Zavalla each had one new case.

There were 19 new cases for the previous week.

So far this year there have been 178 new cases.

Once Saw It Rain Frogs, Crawfish and Big Red Minnows

A. R. Rochetzsky of Hanover, one time cowboy on the prairies around Cuero in DeWitt County, came in Friday and talked about that news story we had about fish being found in a ditch after a rain.

Mr. Rochetzsky says he can testify to the fact that it rains marine life. It is a known fact that tornados sometimes suck up the water of tanks and small lakes and scatter it abroad. This may account for such things.

Anyhow Mr. Rochetzsky said: "I was about 15 years old and one day while out riding with a herd of cattle it came up a terrific rainstorm. I was caught out on a small prairie with sloping land. It was near the little town of Lindeneau not far from Cuero in DeWitt county."

"After a while I noticed crawfish, frogs and long red minnows on the ground, right on the hillsides. Many of the specimen were killed when they hit the ground, but I saw hundreds of minnows flouncing about and frogs hopping and crawfish crawling."

Well, there you have an eye witness account to the fact that such things do happen.

Dust Applications Better Than Sprays For Insect Control

With few exceptions dust applications are recommended for the control of truck crop pests in preference of sprays, as they are, as yet, generally more practicable and are often efficient under our conditions. Potato bugs may be controlled with calcium arsenate, Sryolite dust is another stomach poison used to control melon worms, thrips, cucumber beetles, tomato fruit worms and many other chewing insects.

The grasshoppers will soon be moving into the edges of the gardens. Dust a border strip around the outside edge of your garden with a 10 per cent toxaphene or chloradane dust. Dust the individual garden plates with cryolite. One of the hard to control pest is the squash bug, a 20 per cent sabadilla dust is recommended for the squash bug. For further information on garden insects visit the County Agents office located in post office building in Cameron.

Mrs. J. L. Barmore had as guests the past Sunday, Mrs. W. C. Barmore and Robert from Hearne, Mrs. C. H. Barmore of Bryan and Mrs. Mot Mohler and Mrs. Hart from Winchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy McGoldrick spent the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sheckels in Houston.

MANY BELIEVED DEAD IN PANHANDLE STORM

BULLETIN

At least 4 persons are known dead in the city of Amarillo as a result of the tornado that swept through that north Panhandle city late Saturday night. The tornado swept in from the southwest, demolished an 80 car Santa Fe freight train, left more than 100 persons injured and took a property toll in excess of a million dollars.

Search was being made through the ruins of a big section of the city for possible dead. Washington sources said $50,000 in relief funds had been dispatched. All available doctors and nurses were engaged in treating the injured.

AMARILLO, Texas, May 15 — A tornado struck savagely tonight at Amarillo.

The Amarillo Globe-News said an ambulance driver who had been taking casualties from the area hit estimated from 25 to 50 persons had been killed.

The Globe-News said at 11:30 p. m. (CST) it knew of four deaths.

The twisting, destructive winds struck elsewhere in the Texas Panhandle where a bumper wheat crop is maturing. First reports from places other than Amarillo indicated damage elsewhere was lighter.

(The Borger News-Herald said a funeral home in Borger had been requested to send an embalmer and embalming fluid to Amarillo. Borger is about 40 miles northeast of Amarillo. The News-Herald said the funeral home estimated at least 20 were dead.)

The tornado hit hardest in the southern portion of the city, a section mostly of new homes occupied by veterans. Several thousand persons live in the general area.

The Texas highway patrol reported the tornado had destroyed several homes in a seven-block area.

The Globe-News said the winds had flattened homes around families and that those not caved in were badly damaged.

Captain Polk Ivy of the highway patrol said many injured had been taken to hospitals.

"Everything is in such confusion we haven't had time to make a thorough check."

The dead were reported found in the rubble of a wrecked home.

They had not been identified.

The disaster unit of the Wichita Falls Red Cross was sent toward Amarillo, 200 miles away.

The tornado was first reported to have hit Dalhart, in the northwest corner of the Panhandle, but this proved false. High winds fanned that area, but caused no damage.

The U. S. helium plant near the Panhandle's biggest city was in the path of the tornado which hit three or four places in Amarillo. Communications with the plant were down and it could not be determined if it had been hit.

Telephone reports to the Associated Press from various points not isolated in the area were vague and incomplete. There were unconfirmed reports of widespread damage and of numerous injuries.

"Both our hospitals have received injured," said David Prasco of the Amarillo Globe-News. "How many I don't know. It's hard to give a clear picture of just what happened here. Communications to the hospitals are out. We can't reach the helium plant. We're trying to run this thing down."

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Deer entertained Mr. Deer's sister-in-law, Mrs. Churchill Deer from Kelso, Washington and his sister, Mrs. H. M. Prater of Tyler who have been visiting in the Deer home.

9 INCH RAIN MONDAY NIGHT ISOLATES CITY

BULLETIN

Three are known dead in the Fort Worth flood. Twelve are missing and thousands are homeless. Property damage is fixed at 3 million thus far. A major flood will occur on the Trinity River. Five levees have been broken in the Fort Worth Area.

Fort Worth was isolated early Tuesday morning in one of the worst floods in the history of the city.

In the Meadowbrook section 9 inches of rain fell within a few hours Monday night and early Tuesday morning. In the city proper 6 inches of rain fell.

All the lowlands around the city were under several feet of water as the Trinity River rose to within 3 feet of flood stage in a few hours.

Two levees had broken to spill more flood waters into the city.

Three lives were reported lost by drowning. The police department, the Red Cross, health authorities and volunteer workers had been at work since early Monday night rescuing marooned families.

One woman who refused to leave a trailer camp section in the flood area was reported missing.

Women and children were evacuated first from the threatened areas and rescue centers had been set up in school buildings.

City health authorities warned all residents to draw up water because one of the plants had been damaged and precautions were ordered against pollution.

Houses were floating about in streams caused by the inundation.

The rain storm struck Monday night and the rain continued to fall until around 4 a. m. The storm brought on by the tornados in the Texas Panhandle was moving slowly eastward.

The flood picture was spreading. Dallas had around 5 inches of rain and as far south and west as Cleburne a creek near the city had flooded the town and farm animals were being washed through some of the streets, according to an early news cast.

Prospects for rain in the Cameron area were good although the storm line was moving east and had not dropped as far south as Waco.

Meanwhile the tornado damage in Amarillo had risen to an estimated 3 million dollars.

Floods on the Trinity River were regarded as a certainty.

This is the second time that "Thunderbolt" has won in the past two weeks, once at the Veterans Hospital in Waco.

Make McDermott entered the contests, placing third in reining contest and second in barrel race.

Dr. Fikes who is training a fine young horse also entered the contests.

Mr. Grabein says it was the hardest competition he has had and the best horses he has seen this season. Thunderbolt competed against 22 horses.

Among Cameron people who attended are Mr. and Mrs. George Wilkerson and children; Dr. A. E. Kruse, Alfred Walschak, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ethridge, Dr. J. L. Walker and son.

RIGHT OF WAY PLAN IS GIVEN APPROVAL

Bell county voted for the issuance of one million dollars in bonds Tuesday to buy right of way for a four lane super highway across the county.

The vote was 2359 for and only 853 against to set a new and splendid example of how a people can go ahead.

In voting the bonds the people of Bell county have set a very fine example for lagging counties who are still far behind on right of way needs and road plans.

As soon as the Commissioners Court in Bell county has purchased the land for the right of way the State Highway Department will begin spending 5 million dollars to build the highway.

Construction of a 4 lane highway through Bell county would direct a great deal more traffic through Temple and Belton to points south and southeast and counties that have been backward will lose traffic because they have no highways.

Highway 81 going south from Waco will connect with four lane thoroughfare near Austin and then on to San Antonio.

The people of Bell county followed progressive leadership. In so doing they have insured the future of their county in one of the more vital modern day business benefits, motor and truck traffic.

Mrs. K. R. Isbel of San Marcos accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Robert Lee McLeroy were guests in the home of Mrs. A. J. Anderson, Mrs. J. B. Gregory and Miss Nell Boteler last Sunday.

Friends of Max McClaren will regret to learn he is ill and in Newton Memorial Hospital.

MILAM COUNTY QUOTA IS SET AT $50,000

The 1949 Savings Bond sales campaign will get under way on Monday, May 16.

Henry Siebman will again be director of the Bond sales drive in the county and the quota has been fixed at $50,000.

The symbol of the drive this year is a Covered Wagon and the slogan is "be a modern forty-niner."

Covered wagons, flown from Cedar City, Utah, by Army Air Force and Navy planes will form a security circle in Independence, Mo., Sunday, May 15, to a modern forty-niner spectacle which will launch the Opportunity Savings Bonds Drive nationally.

Participating in the big event will be Governor Earl Warren of California and Governor Paul Dever of Massachusetts.

To Jackson County in which President Truman's home community is located the national opening of the $1,040,000,000 Series E bond campaign will mark the achievement of its county objective of $7,000,000 in bond sales. For two weeks prior to the National drive opening, Jackson County sees fit to make its goal as an inspiration to other counties.

President Truman and Security of the Treasury John W. Snyder will participate in a coast to coast radio kickoff with appeals to every potential buyer of Savings Bonds to enroll in the payroll savings or bond-a-month plans as well as investing in extra savings bonds during the drive which will run from May 16 to June 30.

Every state and every community in the nation has accepted an E Bond sales goal. More than 3,000,000 volunteers, including 200,000 newspaperboys who will deliver a special pamphlet to 12,000,000 homes, have been enlisted by the United States Savings Bonds Division to help sell E Bonds to friends and neighbors. The theme of the campaign is "Put More Opportunity in Your Future."

Spearheading the greatest peacetime promotion in support of savings bonds is the motion picture industry which is sending its major stars on tours, sponsoring bond premiers and exhibiting a special bond movie, starring Jack Benny.

Actual covered wagons, bearing the slogan "Be a Modern Forty Niner, Buy Savings Bonds", will be on exhibition in every state.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 22.

The Golden Text is: "The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light" (Matthew 6:22).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord" (II Corinthians 5:8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The time approaches when mortal mind will forsake its corporeal, structural, and material basis, when immortal Mind and its formations will be apprehended in Science, and material beliefs will not interfere with spiritual facts" (page 402).

says Mr. John Brookshire
1107 Locust Street
Sweetwater, Texas

Servel Gas Refrigerator owner for 13 Years

In just 41 words, Mr. John Brookshire gives the reasons why he will again choose Servel Gas Refrigerator: "I have used my Servel Gas Refrigerator since 1936 and am pleased to say that it has not cost me one cent for repairs. The operating cost has been so small that I have noticed no difference in my gas bill."

No wonder Mr. Brookshire says, "I can truthfully say that if and when I need a new refrigerator, it will definitely be a Servel Gas Refrigerator."

Clearly, a refrigerator giving this kind of service is worth more. Thousands think so for thousands are switching to Servel Gas Refrigerator.
